About Bev

A few of the comments received from young people about Bev;

Bev wants young people to do something positive with our lives and that makes us want it too.

She remembers everything about us.

She thinks everyone should have a dream to wish for and once we tell her what it is, she helps us make an action plan. She doesn't write them, she helps us write them. They are our plans – nobody else's.

She makes us laugh.

Meeting Bev weekly was like someone had switched the light on in a dark room.

Bev believed in me and she supported me every single step of the way.

Bev motivated me to get back to college. She told me what I was worth and not to waste my talents. I am going to be a midwife.... watch this space!

Support more people like Bev to help young people reach for the stars.
